TRINIUM Resources Group Relocates to New Office Space

Wayne, Pennsylvania – December 1, 2008 –Effective December 1, 2008,

TRINIUM Resources Group, a management, marketing, and human resources consulting firm serving the design and construction industry, has relocated their offices into the historic village of Wayne, Pennsylvania.

Tracing its roots to the late 1600s, Wayne is part of Radnor Township and is located in suburban Philadelphia. Named for ‘Mad Anthony’ Wayne, a General in the United State Army during the American Revolutionary War, the village is located approximately 14 miles west of Philadelphia. Today, Wayne is home to a variety of businesses including eclectic restaurants, diverse shops, and entrepreneurial service firms.
